

Hanger for use in concrete hollow-core slabs

Hanger for use in concrete hollow-core slabs

Suspente hourdis béton

Description

- For suspending rails in plasterboard between two concrete hollow-core slabs.
- Installed with a tool.
- Thickness of phosphated steel: 1 mm.
- Maximum permissible load: 42 kg.

Product benefits

- Setting tool supplied.
- Quick and easy: No need for a wall plug or drilling.
- The rail can be clipped directly onto the hanger or a hanger for use in timber can be fastened using self-tapping screws.

Materials

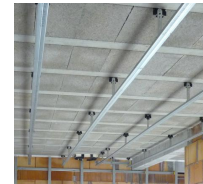

Hourdis

Suspente hourdis béton - vue en situation

Suspente hourdis béton + suspente bois

Suspente hourdis béton - vue en situation

Références produits

DÉSIGNATION	RÉFÉRENCE	CONDT	FINITION
SUSPENT HOURDIS Bte de 100	A220145	Boîte de 100	Noire